1 Starting the Application

- To start the Dataloy application, double-click on the URL or desktop icon provided to you by your system administrator or Dataloy.
- Depending on whether you have started the system before or not, the login screen will be displayed (see next section “Logging In”).
- If this is the first time using the system or if there is a system upgrade available you might see the following screen:

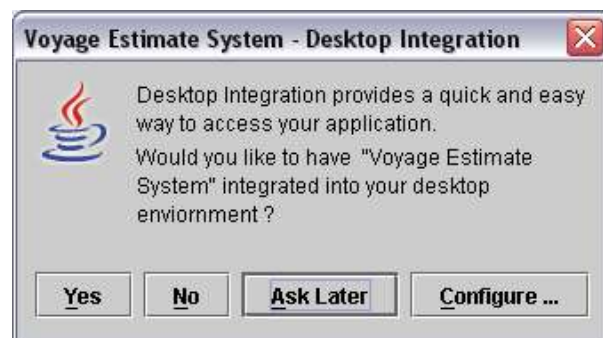

This indicates that the system is being uploaded to your PC. Do not click the Cancel button, wait till the download has completed. This might take some minutes especially if you are on a low bandwidth connection.

- After the download is complete, you will see the following screen appearing. Click the Start button:

- Depending on your setup you might also see this dialog box:

After selecting an option, the login screen is displayed. Proceed to the next section of this document to learn how to log in.

2 Logging In

- To login, type the user name and password that has been provided to you by your system administrator.

A screenshot of a Windows-style dialog box titled "Login to the Voyage Estimate System". The dialog has a standard title bar with a close button (X) in the top right corner. Inside the dialog, there are three input fields on the left and three buttons on the right. The first input field is labeled "Username:" and contains the text "DATALOY". The second input field is labeled "Password:" and contains a series of asterisks "". The third input field is labeled "Server:" and contains the text "DEFAULT". The buttons on the right are labeled "Login", "Cancel", and "more >>". At the bottom left of the dialog, there is a small version number "v3.1 b6170".

- Click the Login button

Tip: Username and Password are case-insensitive

You will now be logged in and the login screen will disappear. Please proceed to the “Module Navigation” user manual to learn how to access the functionality you want to work with.
